

PROFESSIONAL CRITERIUM
GLENCOE, IL

2009
Winners

PRO TEAM DEVELOPMENT SEMINAR

This seminar is for amateur teams serious about taking the next big step and becoming a UCI Continental team. Lead by experts who have vast personal experience with running Pro teams.

Friday, August 13, 2010 - 4:00pm - Village Hall - 675 Village Court, Glencoe, IL

Micah Rice, Managing Director
National Events - USAC

Micah Rice started his professional cycling career in 2000 where he spent two years as a support rider on the Zaxby's Professional Cycling Team. He founded the Jittery Joe's Pro Cycling team in 2002 and managed the squad for eight years. Currently, Micah is the Managing Director of National Events for USA Cycling's 16 national championship events which includes the National Race Calendar (NRC) and the USA Cycling Pro Tour.

Danny Van Haute, Team Director
Jelly Belly Pro Cycling Team

Danny Van Haute, now in his 11th year as a Team Director the man they call "The Beast" is a veteran leader. Van Haute has used his vast experience as a pro rider as well as director to create a cohesive unit that seems to get better every year. His dedication to the team and the sport has made him a much-respected figure in cycling. Currently Danny is Team Director of the Jelly Belly Pro Cycling Team

Mike Tamayo, Team Director
United Health Care presented by Maxxis Pro Cycling Team

Currently director and general manager of United Health Care presented by Maxxis Cycling Team. His background in team management began with Victory Brewing UCI Womens cycling team, followed by Healthnet Cycling Team, and OUCH Cycling Team. An original founder of the Women's prestige series and a consultant to several NRC and UCI level events.

Marco Colbert, Seminar Moderator

Marco Colbert was assistant/operations manager for Team Type 1 and Advantage Benefits Endeavour. Besides being involved with many aspects of team administration, Marco is heavily involved with organizing this year's Pro Criterium National Championship. Marco is an attorney with 20+ years of experience.

Seating is limited
RSVP to marccolbert@comcast.net